

TROJAN

(1966)

The image features a minimalist, abstract design. A large, dark, curved shape, resembling a stylized letter 'C' or a wing, dominates the left side of the page. It has a sharp point at the top and a curved bottom. To the left of this shape, a thick vertical black line runs down the page. Below the main curved shape, there is a smaller, more complex black shape with a stepped, architectural appearance. The background is a light, off-white color. The text is printed in a bold, serif font.

COAT OF ARMS

Foreword. . .

Life Is . . .

Life is many things. Life is a new baby, a small child, a teenager, an adult. Life is death. Life has its ups and downs. Life is different for every person. Each sees the phases of life in a different light. For all, life is a driving compelling force pushing us forward at a much too rapid pace.

Life is precious. Memories of the past are too often brushed aside: too often forgotten . . .

The 1966 Trojan is published to preserve one phase of our lives which has come quickly to an end. We, the staff, have done our best to make this a memorable and enjoyable Trojan yearbook for you.

Sandy Zurmehly, Editor-in-Chief

COAT-OF-ARMS for TROY HIGH SCHOOL

The prestige coat-of-arms developed for Troy High School by the L. G. Balfour Company, assisted by the student council, has been established as a standing symbol for Troy.

Each part of the coat-of-arms has a special and significant meaning. The shield with two swords crossing behind is to signify strength. The shield is divided into three parts. The top part shows the Lamp of Knowledge and Learning. Signifying activities in our school, the left part features the two faces of drama and art, also a music lyre for music; the right part featuring the Victory Laurel Wreath for victory in athletics and the crown stands for Glory in all our endeavors.

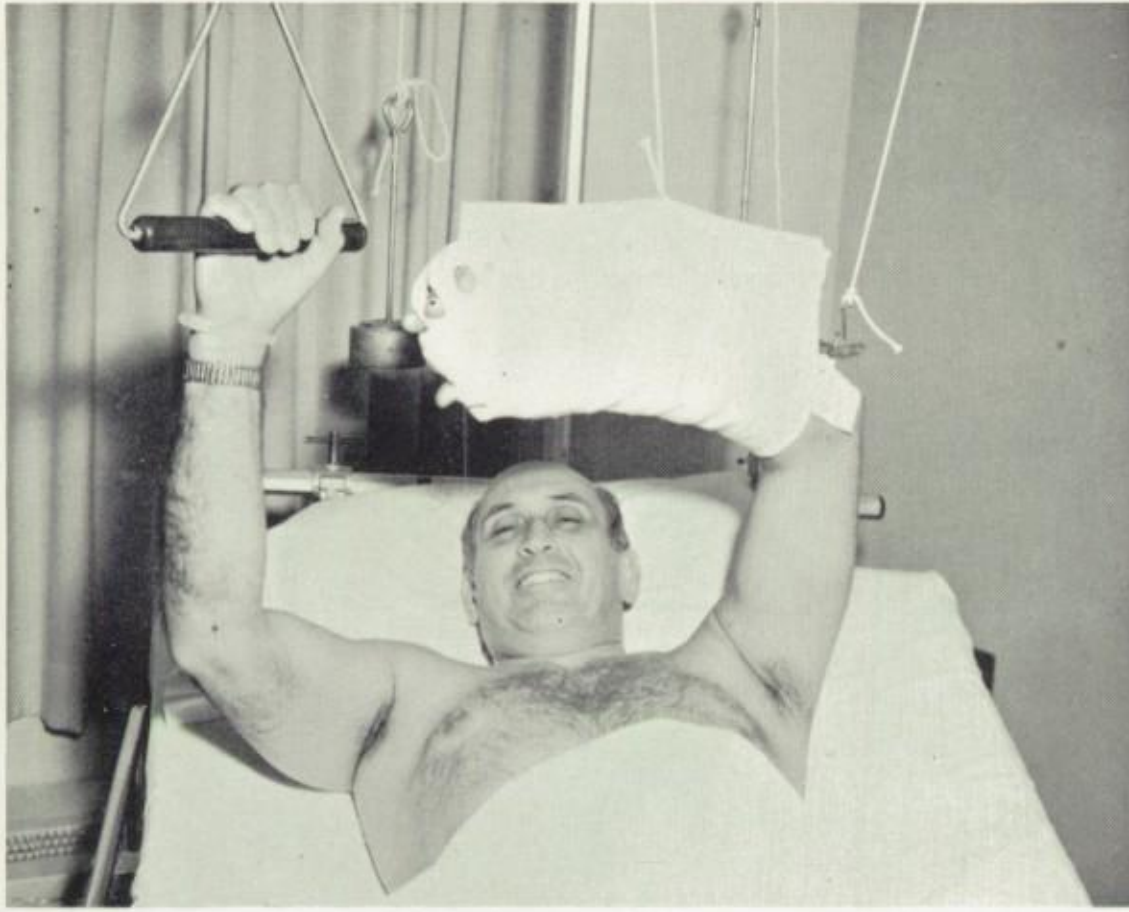

In the ribbon beneath the shield is our school motto of Truth, Honor and Sportsmanship. Resting on top of the shield is the new Trojan helmet. The ribbon flowing across the top proclaims this to be Troy High School.

Our new class rings also bear the coat-of-arms — truly a magnificent and prestige coat-of-arms for the finest — Troy High School.

Homer English

Life

Is. . .

The 1966 Trojan Annual Staff wishes to express its most hearty thanks to not just one Mr. English but to three wonderful members of the English family.

First to Homer English who did his usual stupendous photography work. As most know and can see from the picture Homer had quite a misfortunate accident in his car near Fort Wayne in May.

An air of discouragement smothered the staff. Egads! Now What?

Homer's son, John, stepped in and his remarkable work supported the English name. A few difficulties arose between Tipp City, where he makes his home, and Troy.

When these difficulties did occur Jim English, a brother to Homer came from Sidney to fill in.

Our many thanks go to three of the most wonderful and cooperative men in the world.

Thank you, Mr. English(es).

The 1966 Trojan Staff

Miss Elizabeth Blackburn for your warm manner and your fine teaching ability. . . for getting the "Trojan Crier" well on its way . . . for being a senior class advisor and for your wonderful help at Commencement. . . for your great work in the business department, the 1966 Trojan is dedicated to you, Miss Elizabeth Blackburn.

Mrs. Ruth Burk, for that cheerful disposition and for always being ready to help whenever we needed you. . . for being the advisor of JCOWA and having so many successful General Assemblies and Mock Federal Legislatures. . . for organizing Student Government Day. . . for being a senior class advisor and for doing such a fine job at Commencement, the 1966 Trojan is dedicated to you, Mrs. Ruth Burk.

Dedication

Miss Edna Floyd, for your fine personality and warm smile. . . for getting us off to a great start as entering freshmen. . . for teaching us to say "I wrote a letter" instead of "I writ a letter." . . . for teaching us that Great Expectations wasn't so bad after all, the 1966 Trojan is dedicated to you, Miss Edna Floyd.

Mrs. Gladys Helton, for your shy manner and your friendly smile . . . for setting a fine example in the foreign language department. . . for a lady who is abounding in "wim wigo and witality". . . for being the "little" lady who could just barely see over her desk, the 1966 Trojan is dedicated to you, Mrs. Gladys Helton.

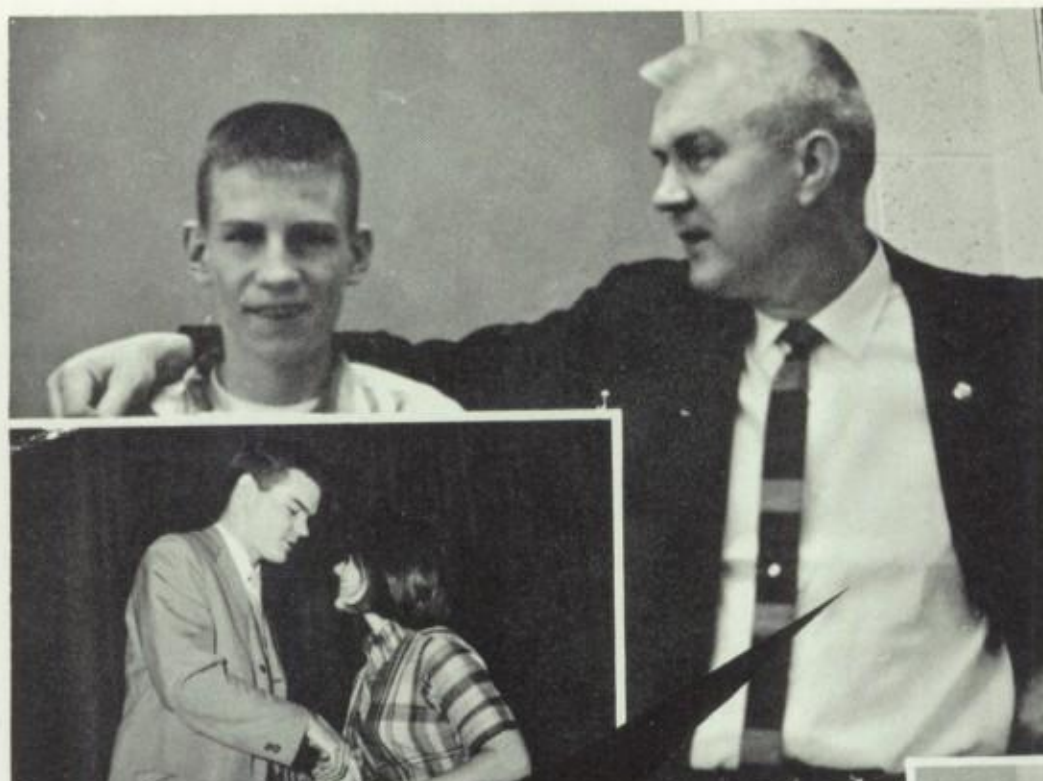

Mr. Curtis Jensen, for the only teacher who could make Spanish the universal language in Troy High School. . . for your fine organization of the Spanish Club. . . for your friendly "holas" and your willingness to help with anything at all times, the 1966 Trojan is dedicated to you, Mr. Curtis Jensen.

Dedication

Mr. William Woolery, for your invaluable service to the industrial arts department. . . for being a faithful friend and a great help to the fellows. . . for patiently instructing the boys in the techniques and steering them to a future in welding, the 1966 Trojan is dedicated to you, Mr. William Woolery.

Back On Winning Track

Under the expert guidance of new head coach Alkie Richards, Troy's football future looks much brighter. This year's grid team compiled a fine 7-3 record, bouncing back after a pair of disappointing seasons. M.V.P. Bob Zimpher lead the Trojan attack from the quarterback position, he was named to the Honorable Mention All Ohio team. According to coach Alkie, the most difficult of this year's team to replace will probably be Bennie Phifer and Jesse Olden, this year's ends. Both were fast, sure-handed, and all around team players.

Trojans End 17-5 For 65-66

Troy, fielding one of tallest and most talented teams in its hardcourt history, compiled a fantastic but not good enough 17-5 won-lost record. Undoubtedly the biggest disappointments of the season were the two losses to the M.V.L. champs, Piqua. With two men standing 6'5", two around 6'3", and the only "little" member of the starting fivesome being All-State Bennie Phifer, we literally muscled our way over many of our smaller opponents. Perhaps the best game of the season was the nine point loss to the state champions, Chaminade.

Doug Mumford, basketball coach.

Interest

The 1966 Dramatics Club will be hard to surpass in the future. Its achievements and theatrical productions were the finest that Troy High School has ever produced. The club members have all worked to make the Troy High School Dramatics Club the most outstanding club in the area. The club sponsors 3 plays and one musical during the year. In addition, a Christmas play is also given by the members for the grade school students. Under the watchful guidance of Mr. J. Morris Bailey, the club members have become more knowledgeable to all facets of the theatre. To the regret of the annual staff and mine the Dramatics Club picture has been omitted because of a misfortune in the annual staff department.

This year's library staff was really sincere in their devotion to the memory of Miss Helen Sinks, who passed away this past year while head librarian. They promoted the use of library's many facilities, helped Mrs. Updike by assuming some of her duties, and made the library the best place to study for the innumerable students who used it. In addition, they dedicated a plaque in the honor of Miss Sinks, which, remaining in the library, will remind students of her years of service to Troy High School.

"I love you, you gypsy savage."

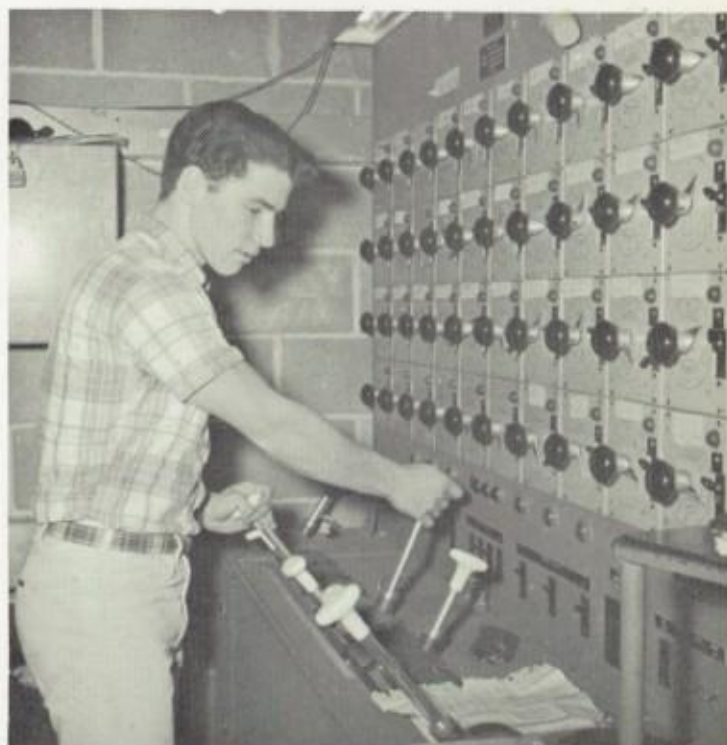

Though acting is usually considered most important in a play, make-up plays an essential part in helping express emotion. These photographs illustrate some of the hard work that went on behind the scenes.

Behind The Scenes

Technical, whether lighting or sound effects, makes or breaks a production, for these live the mood and tone of the play.

THE SAGA OF THE 66'ERS

by Kathy Knuckles

Our voyage began
Back in '62,
And with four years ahead
We felt sort of blue.

That autumn we entered
These alien walls;
'Twas a dark labyrinth
Of identical halls.

We often got lost,
But no one was aloof.
They kindly sent Rex Downing
Up to the roof!

In Intro. to Science
We tried to tune in,
As Vesper kept saying,
"Now, wake up, freshmen!"

The goggle-eyed freshmen
Astutely observed
At the All-Club formal
While they humbly served.

Now our freshman chorus
Was oddles of fun.
The basses were trebles
But, our voices were young.

We even helped Troy
Win the M.V.L.
By raising the roof
With our spirited yell.

Well, I guess I have covered
The events of that year.
It was not long 'til smugness
Replaced all our fear.

CHORUS

We were poor little sheep
Who had lost our way;
Bah, bah, bah . . .
Now we're smart little sheep
Who have found our way,
Rah, Rah, Rah!

As sophomores we entered
In '63,
And, as such,
Were no longer nonentities.

We had fought the good fight
While collecting our bugs,
And dissected our earthworms
With nonchalant shrugs.

At last we could enter
Some coveted clubs;
And in sports we were
No longer thought of as scrubs!

We cheered in Block "T";
Dramatized in some plays;
So you see
We were helpful in all sorts of ways.

We even chased pigs
At the Homecoming blaze,
And managed to capture
A stunning first place!

We completely enjoyed
The Shakespearean week,
And Prouty as Falstaff
Made us laugh 'til we shrieked.

The dress of the Sophomores
Excited esteem
As they served at the Prom
With an old Southern theme.

During cheerleading try-outs
We nearly went "batty,"
But finally elected
Nance, Becky and Patty.

CHORUS

Can't go out tonight . . .
I've got those homework blues.
Can't go out tonight . . .
Don't have no time to lose.
I'll sit and muse,
Until I start to snooze.

The Junior class entered
In '64,
To bad times a'plenty
And good times galore.

For two years we'd struggled,
But now, at long last,
We became members
Of the famed 'Upperclass.'

We came unprepared
Into Chemistry class,
And the lab room resounded
With shattering glass!

But we studied our atoms
And our molecules,
And, soon, nothing was heard
But the click of slide-rules.

Some boys entered Key Club,
And some Interact;
And in sports they kept busy
From football through track.

But we girls, too, were busy,
And all through the year
We would dole out concessions
And continue to cheer.

We would study for "Kaz"
From Monday through Thursday,
But on Fridays, fold programs
For our boys in the jerseys.

Our dramatics department
Produced many a winner,
From "The Sound of Music" to
"The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Then, on April Fool's Day,
We evacuated school
Because of the threat
Of some bomb-crazy fool!

The Prom we prepared
Had an Oriental theme.
Our pagoda and dragons
Were simply supreme!

Then around rolled Commencement;
The Seniors were grand.
When they graduated,
We were FIRST IN COMMAND!

CHORUS

All our trials, Lord, soon be over.

When we entered as Seniors
In '65,
We swore to make T.H.S.
Really come alive!

We jammed Senior Bench
'Til it bulged at the seams,
And the building resounded
With our jubilant screams.

But soon our bravado
Was turned into gloom
As we timidly filed into
Frank Prouty's room.

However, his bark was
Much worse than his bite;
So we gave him a party
And he mellowed a mite.

We made him a member
Of his favorite club,
But the hand-knit Block "T" vest
Was a wee bit too snug.

The kids who took Physics
Acted sort of amazed
When they got the results
Of their first six weeks' grades.

And in Civics we argued
Until blue in the face,
With Mrs. Burk as the umpire
And Snider on first base.

Everyone was delighted
When they met Hartmut Sprick,
And, although he was new,
He adapted real quick.

When Homecoming time
Once again rolled around,
We all smiled and cheered
When Queen Patty was crowned.

Our tough football team
Was almost past reproach;
They turned in a good season
With Alkie as coach.

The fall turned to winter,
The winter to spring,
And the good weather started
A number of things!

The absences grew,
And the studying dwindled
As under the seniors
A fire had been kindled.

Elections were fun
As both parties worked madly,
But L.U.A.U. defeated S.A.F.A.R.I.
Quite badly!

And then, our last Prom
Where everyone beamed
As Jessie and Margie
Were crowned king and queen.

At the last big assembly
Amidst loud hoots and hollers,
Swigart and Hunt were
Proclaimed our top scholars.

Now the time for Commencement
Is just about here,
And we'll always remember
Our Troy High School years.

It's a bitter-sweet feeling —
Both happy and sad,
Leaving all this behind us
And becoming "Old Grads."

But despite all our mischief,
Despite all our pranks,
We extend to you all
Our most heartfelt thanks.

Hartmut Sprick

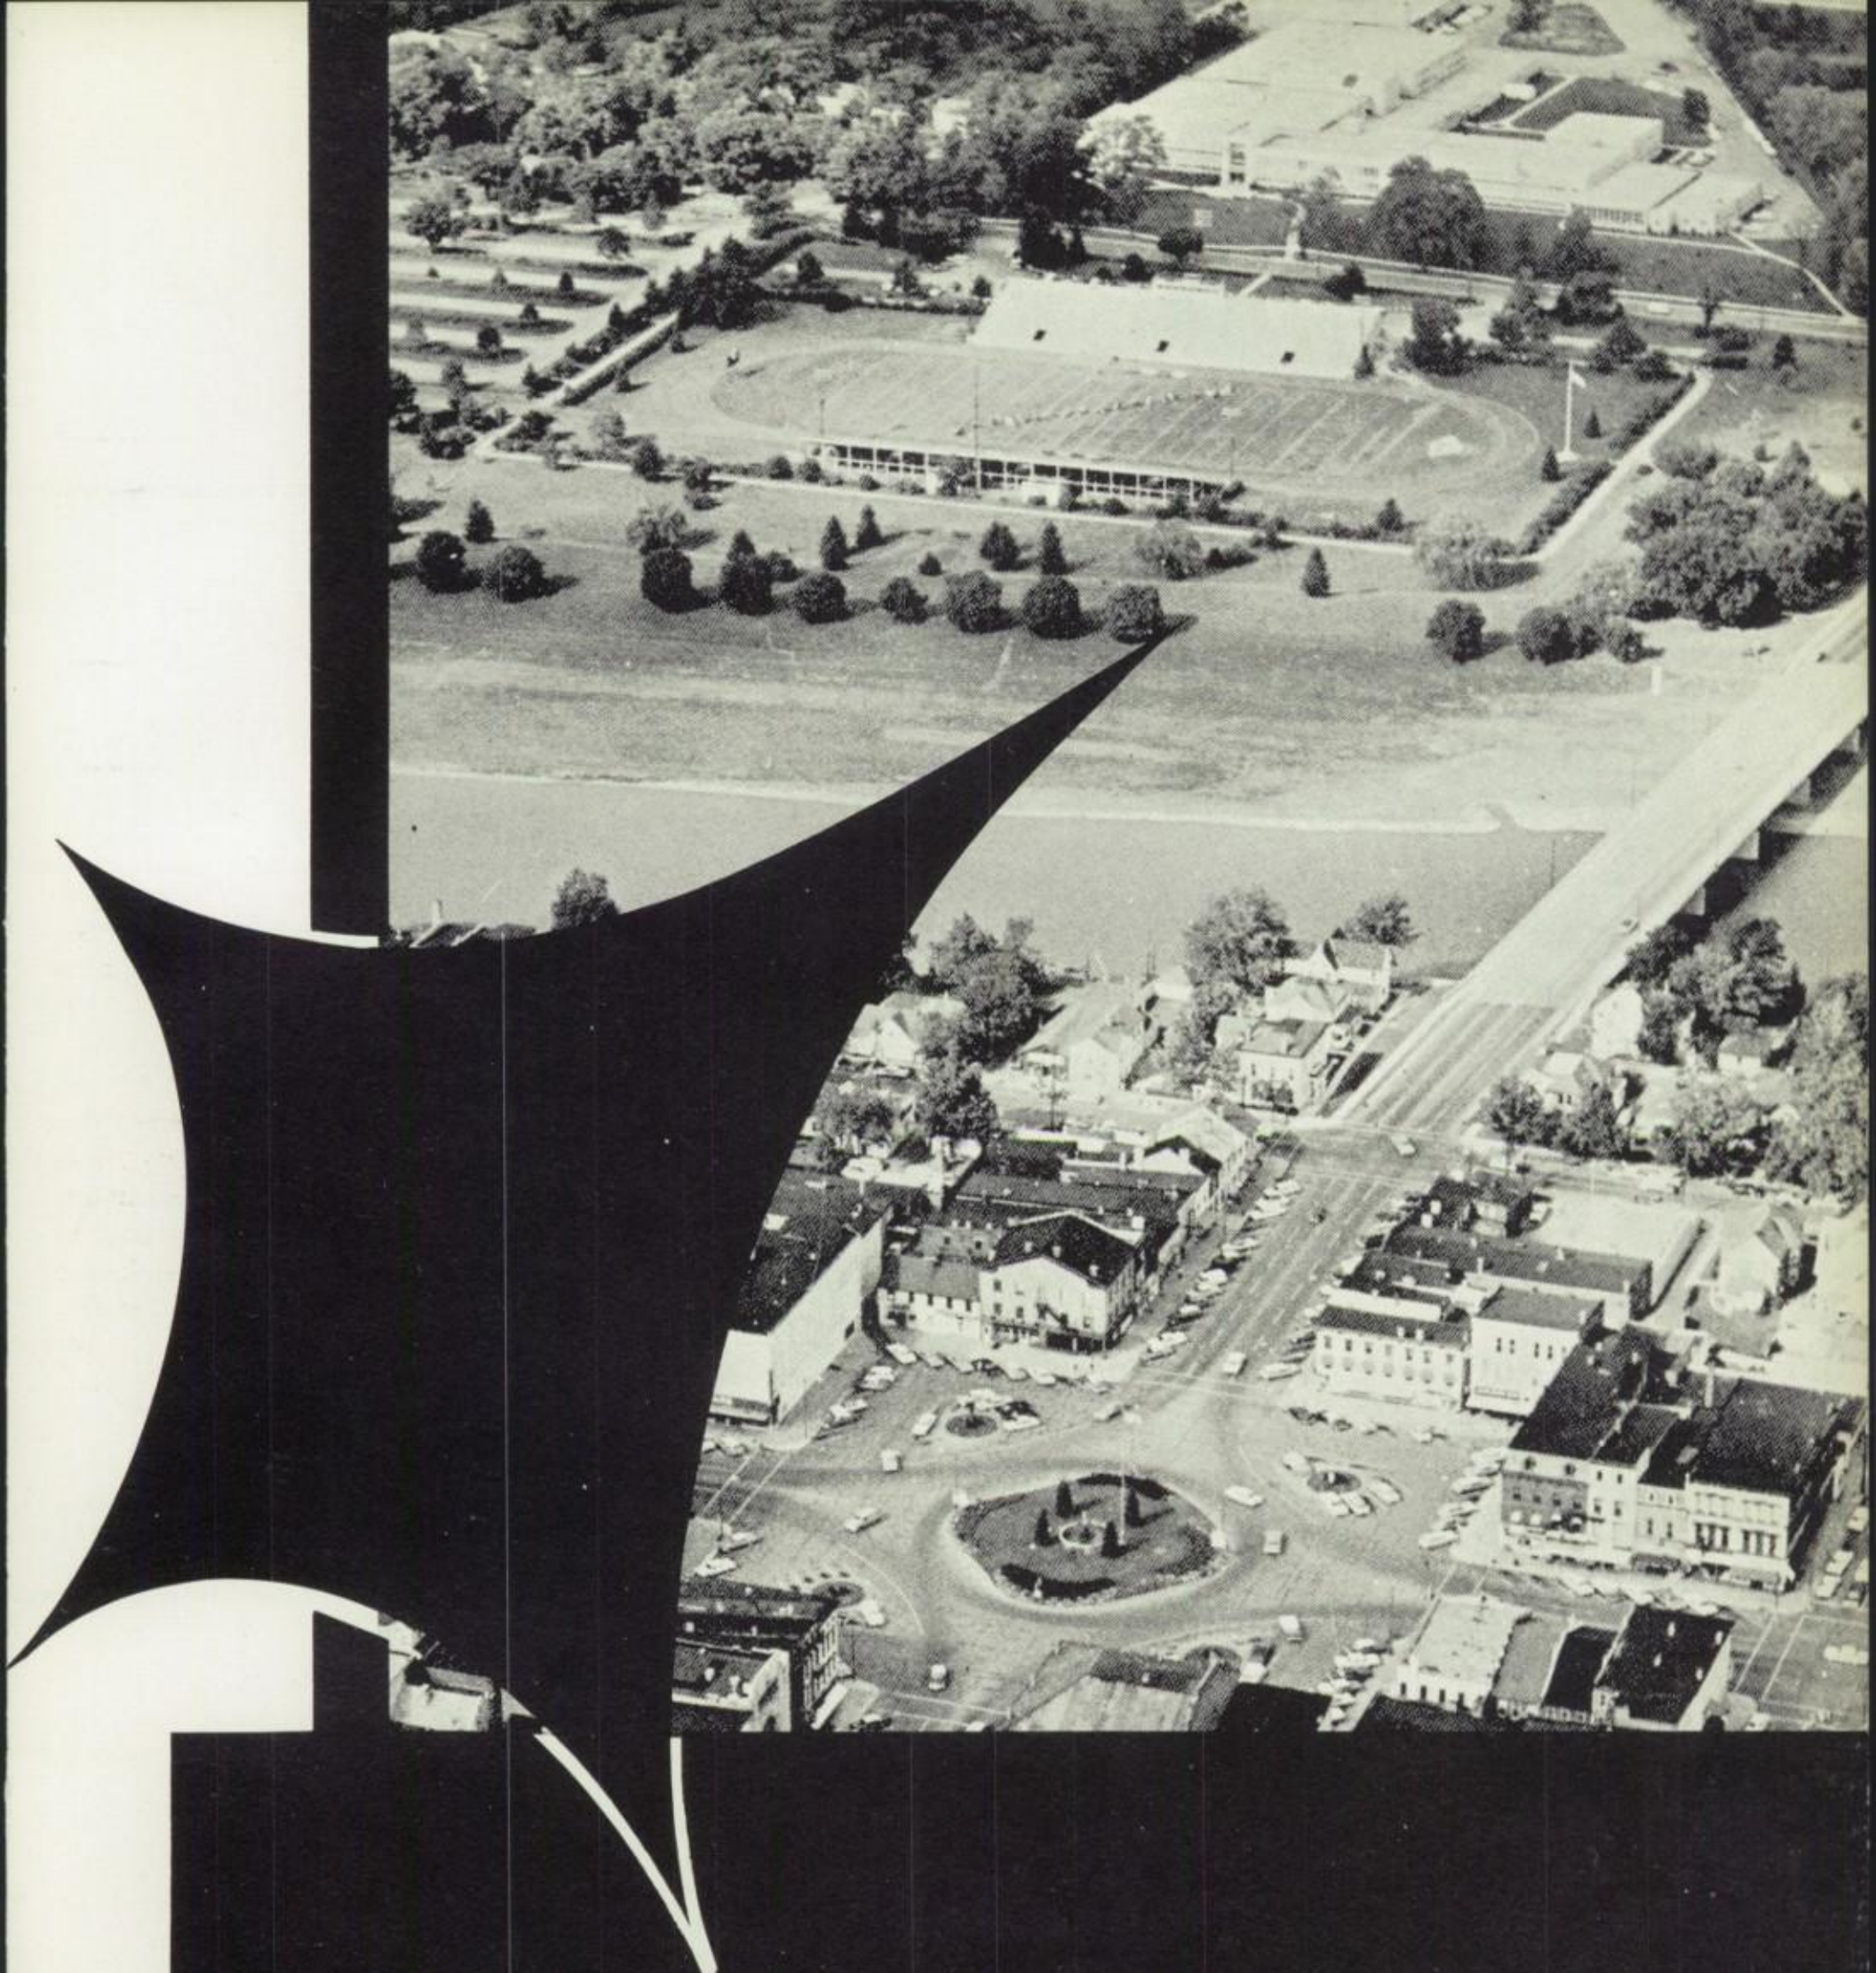

"I Am A Trojan"

We, the senior class, the underclassmen, the administration, and the citizens of Troy, Ohio, wish to express to you, Hartmut Sprick, our thanks. Our thanks for many, many enjoyable moments and experiences. We shall always remember you and each one of us shall treasure in our hearts at least one special moment we shared with you. Always in our hearts will remain your speech at the Senior Dinner when you referred us to a famous quote made by the late President Kennedy when he said "Ich bein ein Berliner" and you continued to say "I would like to say . . . I am a Trojan."

Hartmut, our German foreign exchange student, how could we ever forget you?

Hartmut comes to America and joins a SAFARI.

Pedro: Who me?

In Loving Memory

The 1966 Trojan is published in memoriam of the following people:

You filled our lives with memories
As we traveled day by day,
And taught us how to live and learn
Each in your own special way.

Teaching, helping, or being a friend
So many duties you undertook;
We remember all in loving memory
As backward o'er the years we look.

How can our small words of praise express
The wonderful moments we knew?
Our minds in loving memory
Drift slowly back to times with you.

To Mr. Elmer C. Baden whose smile and quiet manner will be remembered throughout Troy High for many years to come. Mr. Baden's fine work and friendship in the industrial arts department are only two examples of his fine teaching ability. The 1966 Trojan is given "In Loving Memory" to Elmer C. Baden.

To Miss Clara Hoagland for her fine dedication and wonderful teaching. Miss Hoagland, after choosing the difficult field of special education, became the best in her field. For many years she exhibited her qualities and warm smile in teaching at Van Cleve. The 1966 Trojan is given "In Loving Memory" to Clara Hoagland.

In Loving Memory

To Mr. Fred B. Pettay whose sweet loving smile and manner will forever cling in our memories. Biology classes had a pleasant air of learning and were taught in such a fine manner. The 1966 Trojan is given "In Loving Memory" to Fred B. Pettay.

To Miss Helen Sinks whose dedication as teacher-librarian will be remembered in many years to come. As entering freshmen through her we learned how to use the library and how to study. As the years grew so did our friendship and our knowledge. The 1966 Trojan is given "In Loving Memory" to Helen Sinks.

To Dr. Berton Hogle whose unlimited friendship and unlimited dedication to high school sports will always be remembered. Many times that familiar form was seen working busily on the football field doing its best to please and comfort through pure dedication. The 1966 Trojan is given "In Loving Memory" to Dr. Berton Hogle.

A Farewell

"Oh Troy High live on forever," bring to others the security, the good times, the rough times, the fame and the friendships that were ours in your presence. As we pass through your doorways for the last time we hear a sudden urgent calling from another world. A calling for a nurse, a factoryman, or secretary, a farmer, a scientist, a doctor, a wife, a husband, or a serviceman in Viet Nam. We hear a new and exciting world beckon to us to leave you, Troy High School, behind as we continue down the long winding road of life. Life is . . . leaving; making way for the new world. With this we bid you a most warm farewell . . .

To Tommy -
Beware of boys with eyes of grey,
They kiss you once and turn away.
Beware of boys with eyes of brown,
They kiss you once and turn you down.
Beware of boys with eyes of blue,
They kiss you once and ask for two!
